

My Time is Now!!

Big Event!

Dr. Sherry "Dr. Jay" Johnson
Catalysts Education Center

Why the Big Event?

Discover the transformative power of coming together.

This isn't just another company gathering—it's your catalyst for...

- 1) extraordinary growth,
- 2) deeper connections,
- 3) and renewed purpose in your career as a life insurance agent.

The Power of Inspiration

Every great achievement begins with a spark of inspiration. At our company events, you'll experience those electrifying moments that remind you why you chose this profession—to make a real difference in people's lives during their most vulnerable times.

Inspiration isn't just a feeling; it's fuel for your success.

When you surround yourself with top performers, industry leaders, and passionate colleagues, you absorb their energy, their strategies, and their unwavering commitment to excellence. These moments of clarity can reignite your passion and propel you to heights you never imagined possible.

You'll hear stories from agents who transformed their practices, overcame seemingly impossible challenges, and created lasting legacies for their families and clients.

These aren't fairy tales—they're blueprints for your own success, delivered by people who walked the same path you're on right now.

Big Event...created for those who want to be inspired!

Alignment: Finding Your True North

In the daily hustle of client meetings, policy reviews, and prospecting calls, it's easy to lose sight of the bigger picture. Our company events bring you back into alignment with your core purpose and the mission that drives our organization forward.

Personal Alignment

Reconnect with your personal "why"—the reason you became an agent in the first place.

Whether it's financial freedom, helping families, or building a legacy, our events help you refocus on what truly matters to you.

Company Mission

Understand how your individual efforts contribute to our collective mission of protecting families across America.

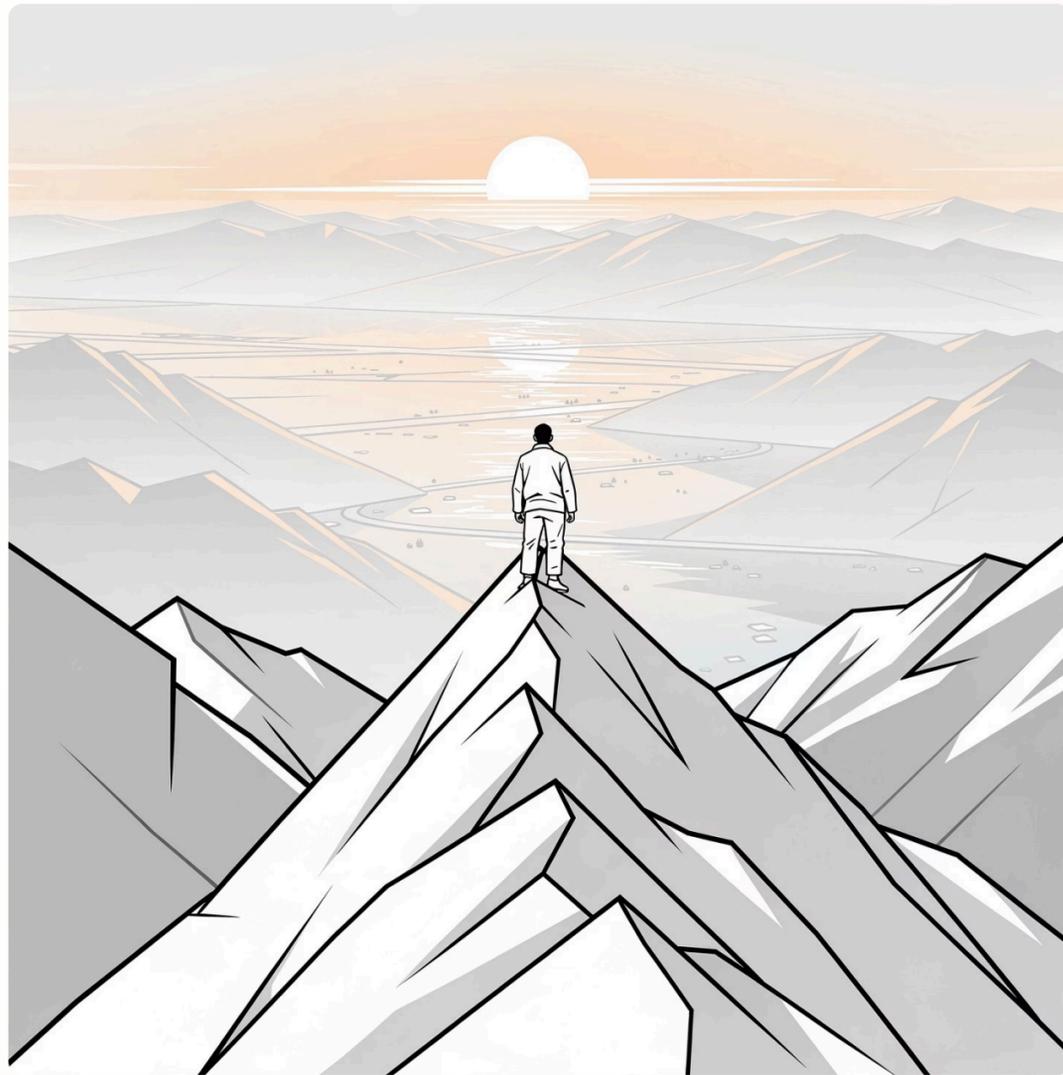

When you see the bigger picture, every policy you write becomes part of something extraordinary.

Industry Direction

Stay aligned with emerging trends, regulatory changes, and market shifts.

Knowledge is power, and being in sync with industry direction gives you a competitive edge that translates directly to your bottom line.

Expanding Your Vision of What's Possible

Vision is the difference between an average career and an extraordinary one.

At our events, you'll witness firsthand what's achievable when you dare to think bigger, dream bolder, and commit fully to your potential.

Meet agents who wrote their first million-dollar policy, built teams of 50+ producers, or achieved financial independence in record time. These success stories aren't meant to intimidate—they're designed to expand your sense of what's possible for your own career.

Through interactive workshops, strategic planning sessions, and visioning exercises, you'll craft a crystal-clear picture of your future.

We'll help you set goals that excite and challenge you, then provide the roadmap to turn those visions into reality.

How big of an organization do you envision creating?

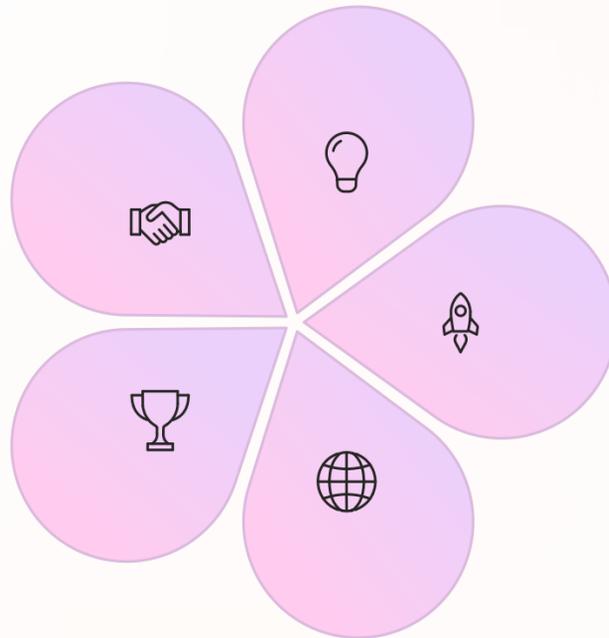

The Network Effect: Exponential Expansion

Strategic Partnerships

Form alliances with complementary professionals—attorneys, CPAs, financial advisors—who can become consistent referral sources for your practice.

Leadership Opportunities

Position yourself for leadership roles within the organization by demonstrating your commitment and connecting with decision-makers face-to-face.

Mastermind Groups

Join or create mastermind circles with high-performing agents who will challenge your thinking and accelerate your growth through collective wisdom.

Mentorship Connections

Connect with seasoned veterans who've achieved what you aspire to accomplish. Their guidance can save you years of trial and error.

Regional Collaboration

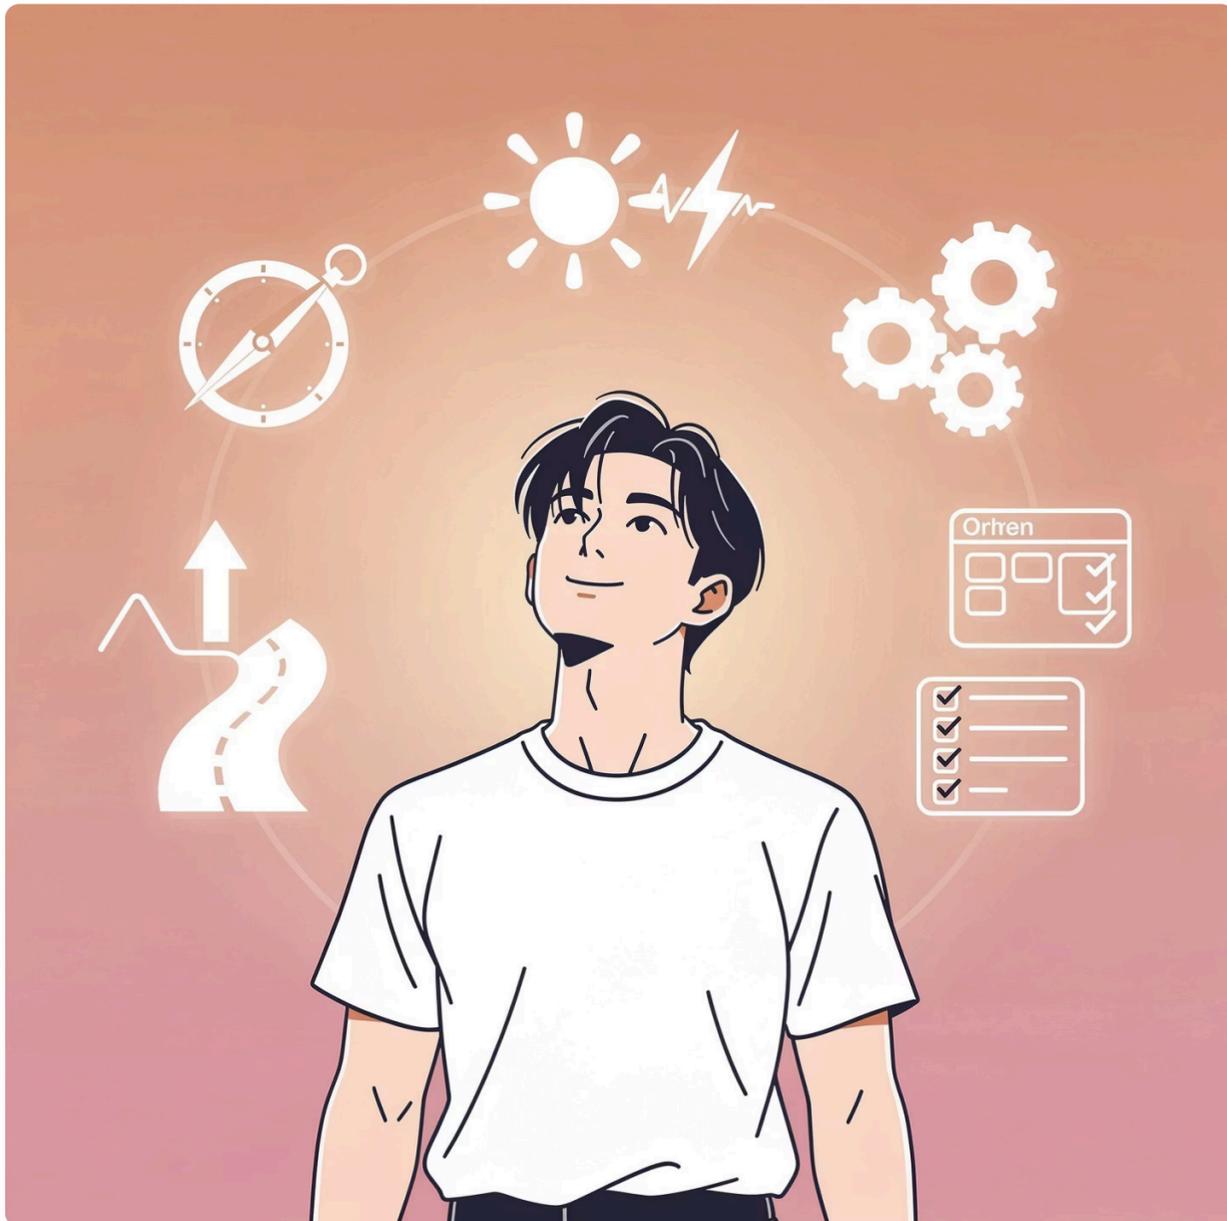

Build relationships with agents in different markets to share best practices, market insights, and innovative approaches to common challenges.

Your network isn't just about who you know—it's about who knows you, trusts you, and wants to help you succeed.

Every handshake at our event is a potential door opening to new opportunities, clients, and breakthrough moments in your career.

Building Unstoppable Momentum

Momentum is the secret ingredient that separates good agents from great ones. It's that powerful force that makes success feel effortless, where one win leads to another, and your practice seems to grow on autopilot. Our company events are specifically designed to help you build and maintain that crucial momentum.

Clarity of Direction

Know exactly where you're headed and why.

Clear goals eliminate confusion and create forward motion in your daily activities.

Renewed Energy

Break free from the routine and reignite your passion.

Return to your market with fresh enthusiasm that clients can feel and respond to.

Proven Systems

Implement battle-tested strategies that create consistent results.

Momentum comes from repeatable processes, not random acts of success.

The Momentum Multiplier Effect

What Happens After the Event

The real magic begins when you return home. Armed with new strategies, refreshed perspective, and accountability partners, you'll experience a surge in productivity that can transform your entire year.

Agents consistently report that attending company events leads to their best quarters. Why? Because momentum is contagious, and the energy you absorb at the event carries forward into every client interaction, every presentation, and every prospecting call you make.

3X

Activity Increase

Average boost in prospecting activity reported by attendees in the 90 days following events

47%

Sales Growth

Median increase in policy sales among agents who attend vs. those who don't

89%

Goal Achievement

Percentage of attendees who report exceeding their quarterly goals after participating

Creating Lasting Impact in Your Community

As life insurance agents, we're not just selling policies—we're creating security, building legacies, and protecting dreams.

The impact you make extends far beyond commission statements; it touches generations of families who will never face financial devastation because of the work you do today.

Immediate Impact

- Families protected from financial catastrophe
- Business owners securing their legacy
- Parents ensuring college education for children
- Spouses maintaining their lifestyle

Ripple Effect

- Communities strengthened by financial stability
- Children growing up without poverty
- Businesses continuing to employ workers
- Generational wealth preservation

Your Legacy

- Thousands of lives positively affected
- Reputation as a trusted advisor
- Financial freedom for your own family
- Model of success for future agents

At our company events, you'll hear powerful testimonials from clients whose lives were forever changed because an agent cared enough to protect them. These stories will remind you that every "no" you hear is just one step closer to the "yes" that might save a family from ruin.

The Transformation Journey

Where You Are Now

Perhaps you're feeling stuck, uncertain, or simply ready for the next level.

Maybe you're a new agent looking for direction or a veteran seeking fresh perspective. Wherever you are, transformation begins with the decision to show up.

The Event Experience

Immerse yourself in three days of intensive learning, networking, and personal development. You'll absorb proven strategies, connect with inspiring mentors, and discover capabilities you didn't know you possessed.

Implementation Phase

Return home with a detailed action plan and accountability partners who will ensure you execute on your new knowledge. This is where theory becomes practice and potential becomes reality.

Your New Reality

Within months, you'll look back and barely recognize the agent you were before. Increased sales, deeper client relationships, and a thriving practice become your new normal—not because you worked harder, but because you transformed how you work.

Personal Transformation Stories

"I was ready to quit the business after two years of struggling. The company event changed everything. I met my mentor there, learned the prospecting system that finally worked for me, and went on to become a Million Dollar Round Table qualifier within 18 months. I'm forever grateful I attended."

— Marcus T., 8-year agent, MDRT member

"As a female agent in a male-dominated market, I sometimes felt invisible. At the event, I connected with a network of successful women agents who showed me that not only could I succeed—I could dominate. Their support and strategies helped me triple my business in one year."

— Jennifer R., 5-year agent, Top 10% producer

What will your transformation story be? Will you give yourself the opportunity to have your mind renewed? One of the avenues through which we are able to grow is the meetings we attend. The more you invest in yourself, the more you are able to grow.

Fueling Your Growth Engine

Growth isn't accidental—it's engineered.

At our company events, you'll gain access to the specific tools, techniques, and training that top performers use to consistently expand their practices year after year.

What You'll Learn:

- Advanced prospecting strategies that fill your pipeline with qualified leads
- Objection-handling frameworks that turn "maybe" into "yes"
- Referral systems that make clients your best salespeople
- Time management methods that double your productivity
- Technology tools that automate and streamline your practice
- Market positioning tactics that differentiate you from competitors

But knowledge alone isn't enough.

You'll also develop the mindset and habits that sustain long-term growth. This holistic approach ensures that your expansion is both rapid and sustainable.

From Hope to Certainty

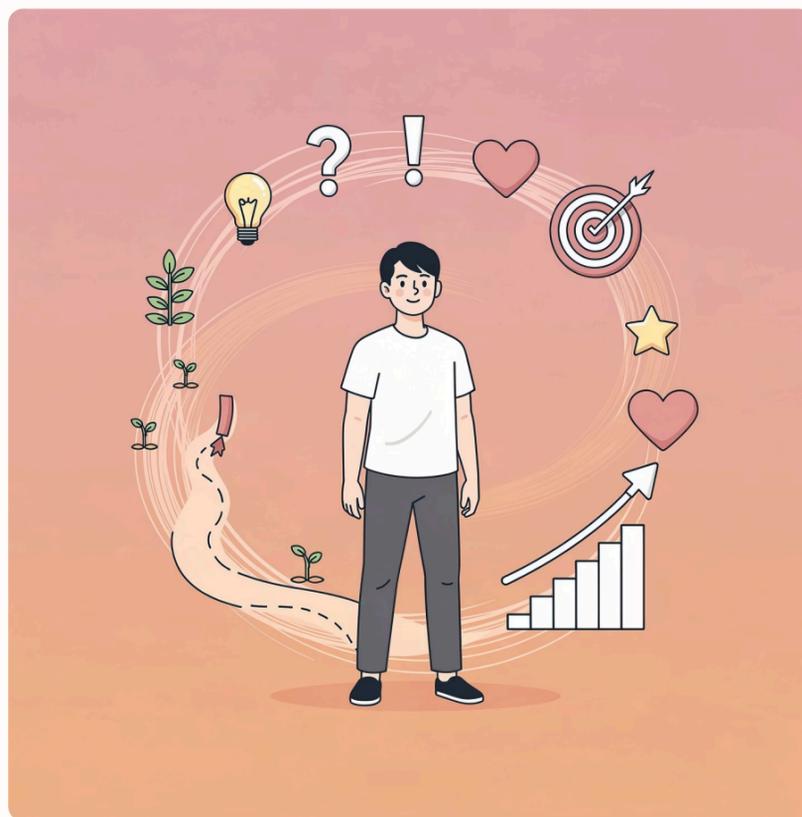

Hope is beautiful, but certainty is powerful. Many agents hope they'll be successful, hope they'll hit their goals, hope they'll build the life they dream about. Our events transform that hope into certainty by giving you the proven roadmap that eliminates guesswork and doubt.

Hope: "Maybe I can do this"

Operating on wishful thinking without a clear strategy. Success feels random and elusive. Confidence wavers with each rejection. Progress is inconsistent and frustrating.

Certainty: "I know exactly what to do"

Following a tested system with predictable outcomes. Success becomes a matter of execution, not luck. Confidence grows with each completed activity. Progress is measurable and motivating.

When you attend, you'll meet agents who once stood exactly where you stand now, filled with hope but lacking certainty. They'll share the exact turning points that transformed their hope into unshakeable confidence. More importantly, you'll learn how to replicate their journey and create that same certainty for yourself.

The Mind Shift That Changes Everything

Success in life insurance sales isn't primarily about skills or techniques—it's about mindset. The most transformative aspect of our company events is the profound mind shift that occurs when you immerse yourself in an environment of excellence, abundance, and possibility.

From Scarcity to Abundance

Stop competing for a limited pie and start expanding the pie for everyone. When you adopt an abundance mindset, you attract more opportunities, build stronger relationships, and experience exponential growth.

From Employee to Entrepreneur

Shift from thinking like someone who works for others to thinking like a business owner who controls their destiny. This mental transition unlocks creativity, resourcefulness, and unstoppable drive.

From Salesperson to Trusted Advisor

Transform how you view your role. You're not selling insurance—you're providing peace of mind, protecting dreams, and ensuring legacies. This reframe elevates everything you do and how clients perceive you.

From Fear to Confidence

Replace the fear of rejection with the confidence that comes from knowing you're offering something genuinely valuable. When you believe deeply in your mission, objections become conversations and "no" simply means "not yet."

Think Bigger Than You Ever Have

Breaking Through Your Mental Ceiling

Every agent has a mental ceiling—an invisible limit on what they believe is possible for themselves. Maybe you think $100K is a good year, or that writing 50 policies annually is ambitious. These self-imposed limits are the only real barriers between you and extraordinary success.

At company events, you'll meet agents who shattered their mental ceilings and achieved what once seemed impossible.

A single conversation with someone writing $5 million in premium annually can instantly expand what you believe is achievable. When you see someone just like you—same market, same obstacles—crushing goals that dwarf your own, something shifts internally.

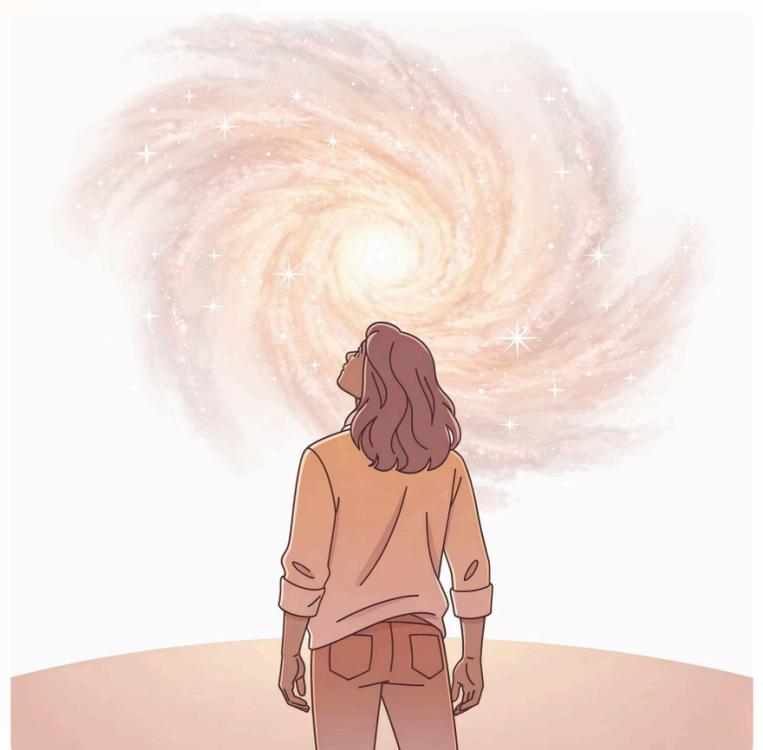

We'll help you identify and demolish your limiting beliefs through:

- Interactive goal-setting workshops
- One-on-one coaching sessions
- Success case study deep-dives
- Visualization and breakthrough exercises

📄 The 10X Challenge

During the event, we'll challenge you to 10X your current goals. Not because it's easy, but because thinking 10X bigger forces you to abandon incremental thinking and embrace transformational strategies.

The Emotional Connection to Your Purpose

Logic makes people think, but emotion makes them act. The most successful agents aren't just intellectually committed to their work—they're emotionally connected to their purpose. This emotional fuel is what carries you through tough days, motivates you to make one more call, and helps you genuinely serve clients from the heart.

Reconnect With Your "Why"

Strip away the numbers and quotas and reconnect with the deeper reason you chose this profession. Whether it's providing for your family, helping others, or achieving financial freedom, your "why" is your emotional anchor.

Experience Impact Stories

Hear directly from clients whose families were saved from financial ruin because an agent cared. These emotional testimonials will remind you that your work matters on the deepest human level.

Celebrate Your Wins

Take time to acknowledge how far you've come and the lives you've already changed. Celebration fuels emotional energy and creates positive momentum toward even greater achievements.

Building Your Emotional Resilience

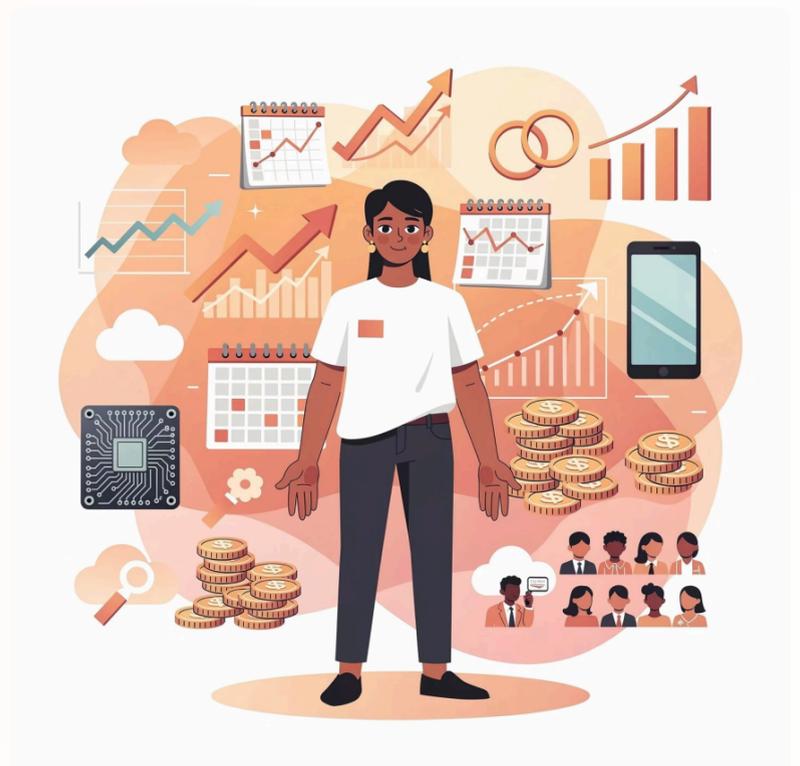

The life insurance business tests your emotional resilience daily. Rejection, objections, market volatility, and competition can drain your enthusiasm if you're not emotionally fortified. Our company events provide the emotional armor you need to weather any storm.

Resilience Building Blocks:

1. Community Support - You'll never face challenges alone again. Build relationships with agents who understand exactly what you're going through and can offer encouragement when you need it most.
2. Mindfulness Practices - Learn practical techniques for managing stress, maintaining focus, and staying present with clients even during difficult conversations.
3. Celebration Rituals - Develop habits of acknowledging wins, no matter how small, to maintain positive momentum and emotional energy.
4. Purpose Clarity - When your purpose is crystal clear, temporary setbacks can't derail your long-term commitment.

Emotional resilience isn't about being tough or suppressing feelings—it's about processing emotions in healthy ways that fuel your forward progress rather than derailing it.

Your Action Plan: What Happens Next

01

Register for the Event

Secure your spot today. Early registration ensures best seating, access to exclusive pre-event materials, and priority for breakout sessions. Don't let this opportunity pass you by.

02

Prepare Your Mind

Between now and the event, start journaling about your goals, challenges, and what you hope to gain. Come ready to participate fully, ask questions, and step outside your comfort zone.

03

Attend with Intention

Show up early, stay engaged, take notes, and network actively. The agents who get the most value are those who commit fully to the experience rather than treating it as passive entertainment.

04

Implement Immediately

Within 48 hours of returning home, implement at least three strategies you learned. Fast action prevents the enthusiasm from fading and creates immediate momentum in your practice.

05

Stay Connected

Maintain relationships with the connections you made. Schedule regular check-ins with your accountability partners and continue learning through company resources and future events.

The Investment in Your Future

Attending a company event isn't an expense—it's an investment with measurable returns. Consider the cost of admission against the potential income increase from implementing just one new strategy, landing one major client, or making one key connection.

What You're Really Investing In:

- Education worth thousands of dollars in consulting fees
- A network that could generate millions in future business
- Confidence that translates to more sales and bigger policies
- Time-saving strategies that give you hours back each week
- Clarity that prevents costly mistakes and missed opportunities

The top producers in our company didn't become successful by avoiding investment in their growth—they became successful by consistently investing in themselves through events, training, and development opportunities.

Ask yourself: What's the cost of NOT attending?

How much potential income will you miss? How many life-changing connections will you never make? How long will you continue struggling with challenges that could be solved with one conversation at the event?

Your Moment Is Now

This is your invitation to step into the agent—and the person—you were meant to become. Every successful agent you admire made the decision at some point to invest in themselves, to show up, to push past fear and doubt, and to claim their place among the best.

The Inspiration You Need

To reignite your passion and remember why this work matters

The Alignment You Crave

To sync your daily actions with your biggest goals and deepest values

The Vision You Deserve

To see clearly what's possible when you operate at your highest level

The Growth You're Ready For

To expand beyond your current limits and achieve breakthrough results

- The question isn't whether you can afford to attend—it's whether you can afford not to.
- Your future self, your family, and your clients are all waiting for you to make the decision that changes everything.
- This is your moment. This is your opportunity. This is your time to rise.

Register today and begin your transformation journey. See you at the event!
